

If there was anybody I'd want to set next to during a test, it would be you. Keep up your marks and you'll be a big success.

Dan Faber (Noted executive)

Good luck. Jeanette

liked the poem you wrote that was in the Statesman.

Dan, the lunch was really fun. I'm glad we had you in my Spanish class cause you're such a clown. You're a cool guy.

Edna Palomares

Good luck
Regne

Faber,

Have a life of total bliss and with meaning. Life for yourself. Make a mark

Steven Johnson

Dan, I didn't get to know too much this year except in football. Although we lost every game we still had fun. Good luck.

Dana Manning

Dan, Although you called me weird I still enjoyed being in the class with you

Weird Man

DAN, YOU'RE ONE OF THE COOLEST GUYS I KNOW HAVE FUN NEXT YEAR.

YOUR FRIEND

MIKE HAGERMAN

P.S. HAVE FUN SKIING TOO.

To one of the most Egoistic, seductive, plagiarizing, despicable, pests I've ever given a ride home. I hope the last 3 yrs. of your high school days are better without me,

Benny,

It was surely not knowing you this year, I hope if I stay home next year you'll still come over after Seminary dinner just with me, too. Good about that sampling trip.
I hope you have a good time this summer and you best get up a party or something over here.

Well good luck & don't stay too far.

I guess it's ~~most~~ hard being so smart and tryin' to stay close to the school.

Good luck always your friend always (and they're too)
A. Frank Shuckling.

It is easy . . . so easy
To make small ripples meaningless ripples.
But how, oh, how Will I make the big ripples that will count
Or will I?

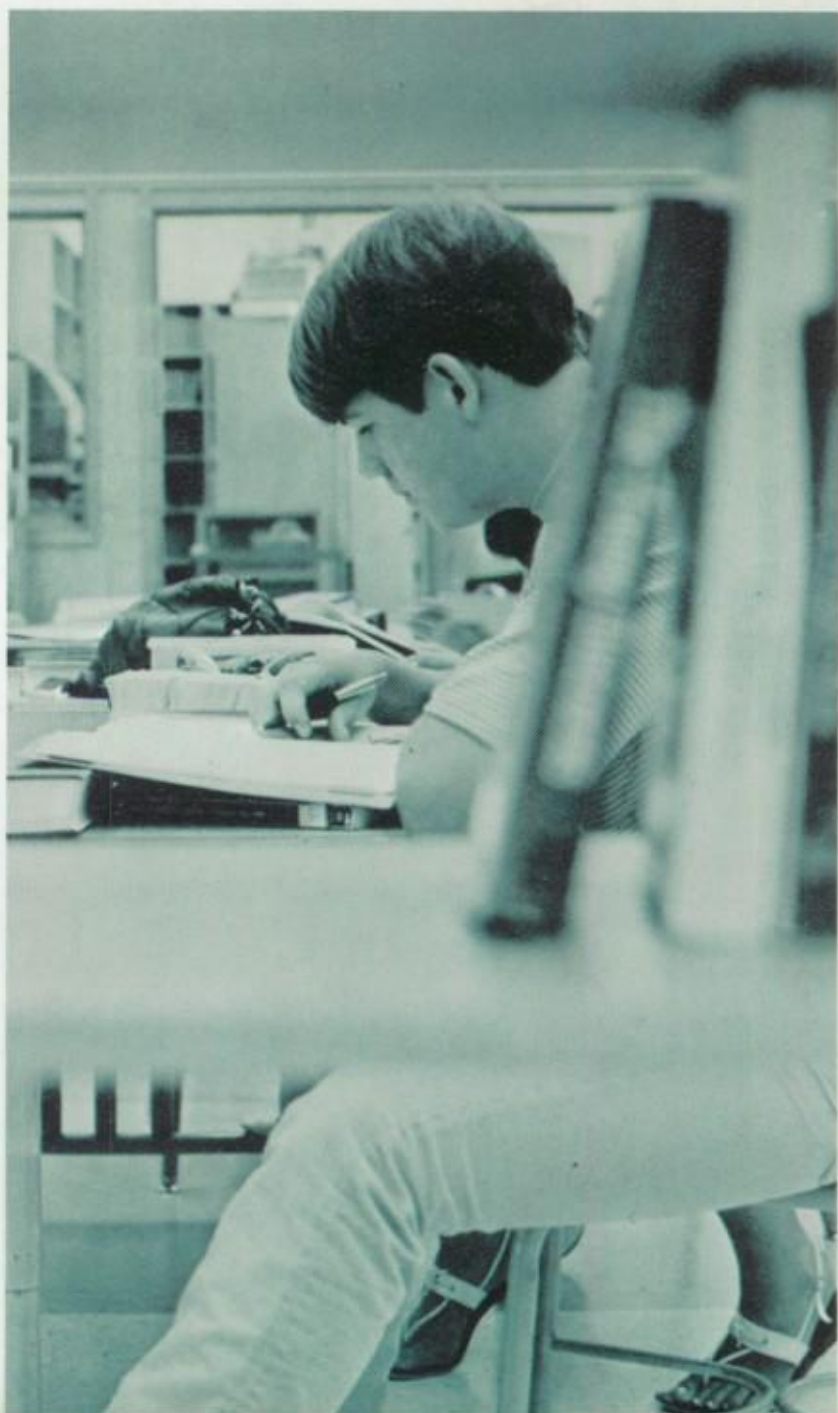

Carefree, joyful
Not always understanding.
But gradually it comes.
And with understanding,
Comes care . . .
I mustn't lose the joy.

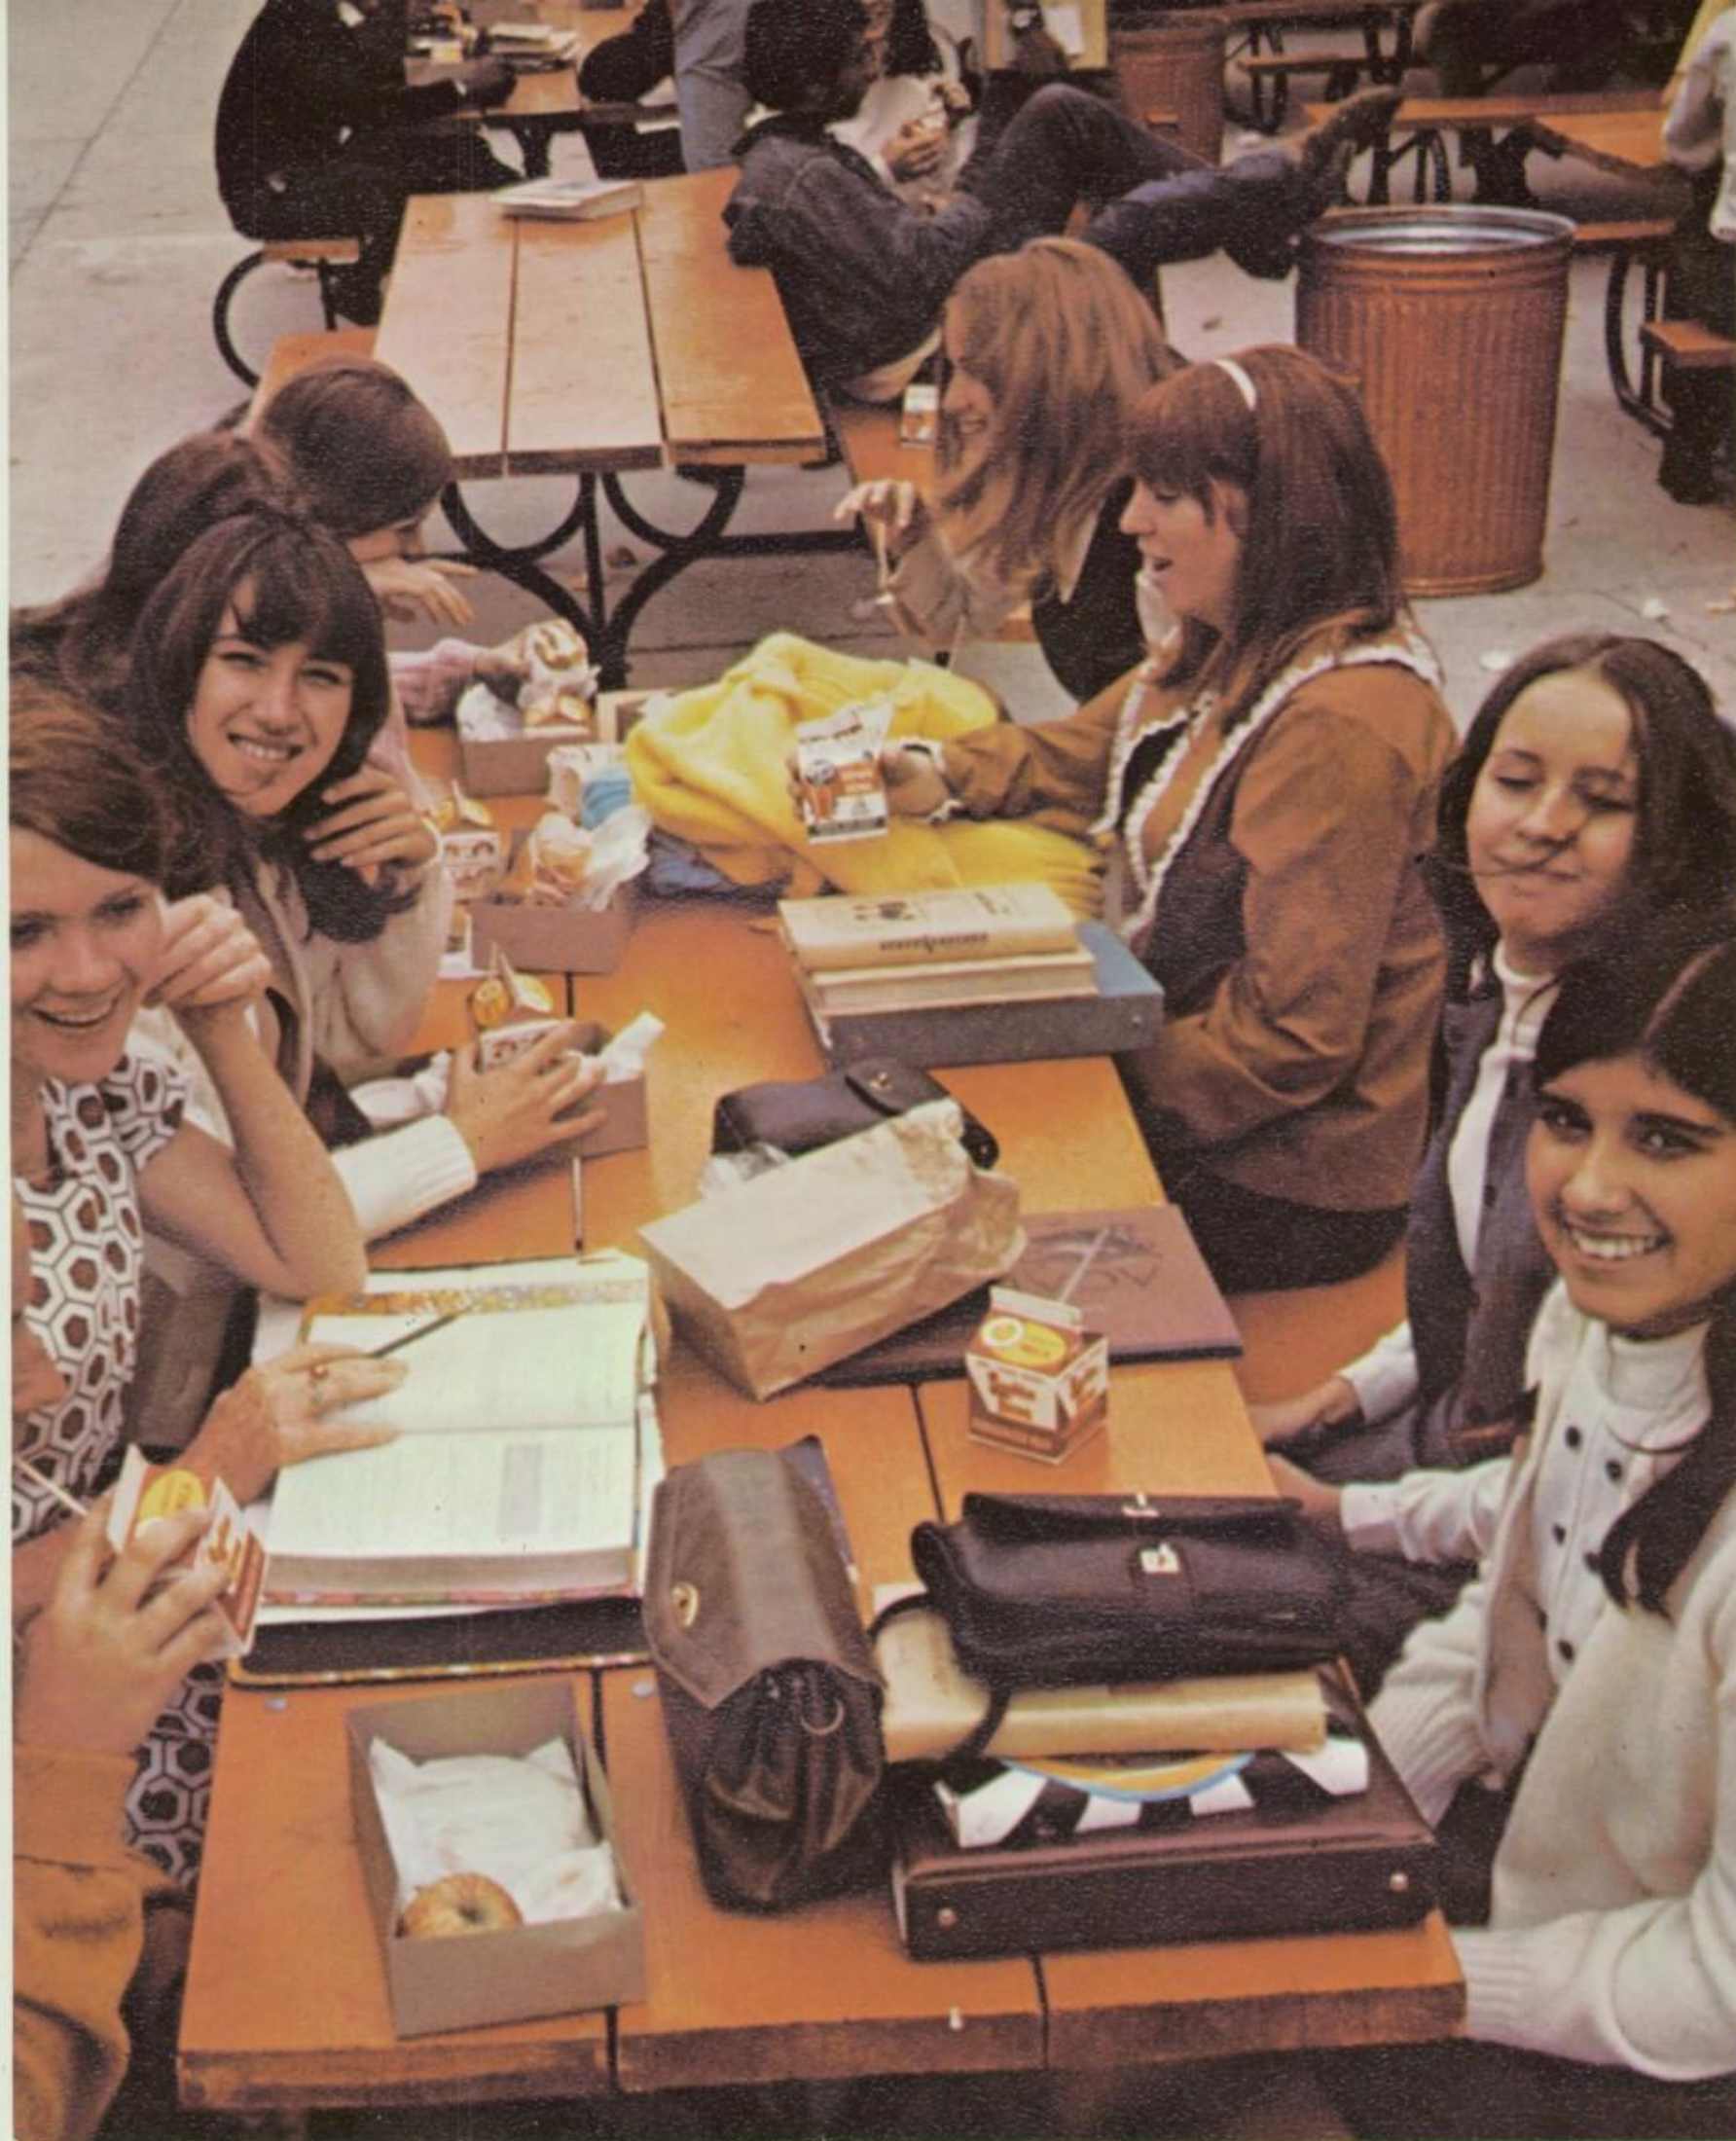

Formulating our ideas today
Which tomorrow may be drastically changed.
Today we can change the world.
Tomorrow it's a hopeless cause;
nothing can help.

Will our minds ever be alphabetized
and filed?
Suspicious, narrow, unmerciful?
"NO, NO!" we say, "We will always be open to new ideas."
But haven't young people always said that?

Out of the masses of nameless faces
I found a handful of people
To share my thoughts . . . and my laughter . . .
and my troubles.

Someone who will listen,
Or help me when I need it
Or when, even without words,
I understand how they feel Suddenly, I'm not alone anymore . . .
And there is no sadness inside of me.
Hand in hand
Thought in thought.

To THE TIR<sup>2</sup> KID

-- Ken Grossman

We move uniformly out of our desks and down the halls Rationing our five minutes quite carefully to our various friends One million hellos to people that we say only hello to.
No time to enjoy each other for we must hurry to get into our desks once again.

Are our cheers as loud as those that now are just echoes?
Have we moved on to things more relevant-
And now have more real concern for others?
Or are we just apathetic?

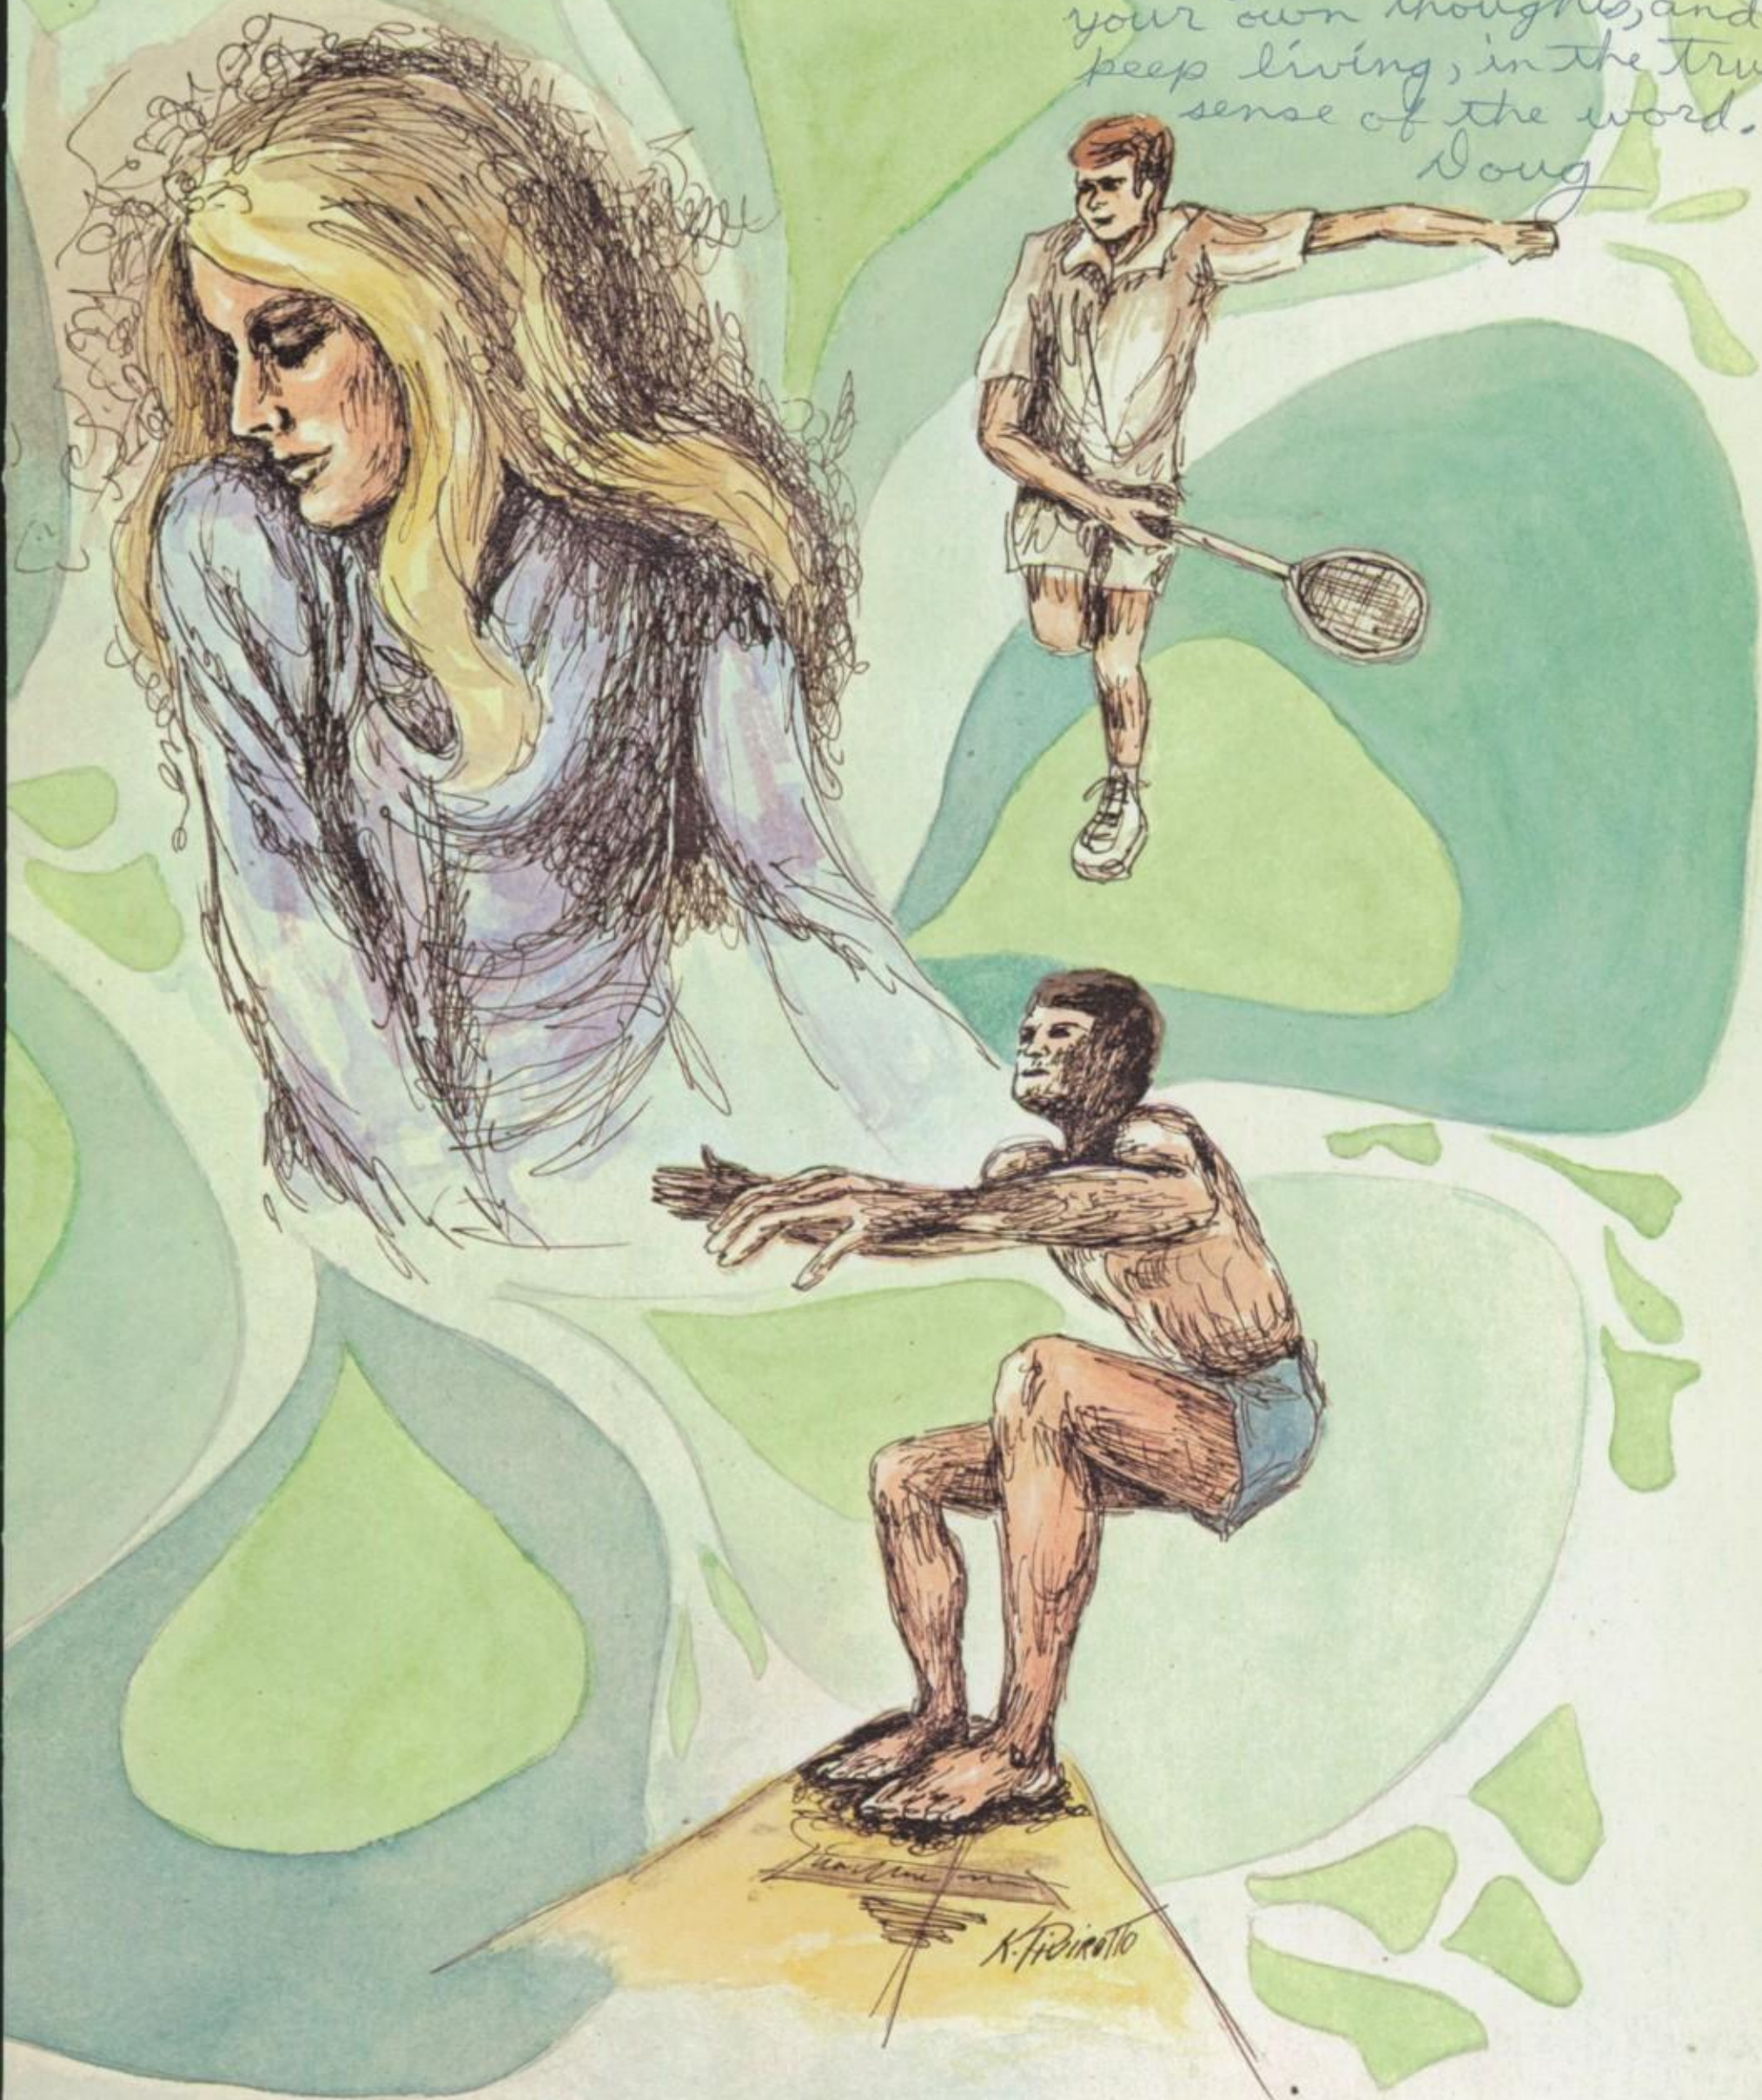

To Faber or Dan (if you prefer)
You are a kid whom I respect. All I want to say is to keep writing poetry, to keep formulating your own thoughts, and keep living, in the true sense of the word.
Doug

Merced High School Student Body Office . . .
 The abode of our wonderful Mrs. Spendlove.
 Always willing to listen to your problems . . .
 That warm, welcome laugh when anyone else would scold.
 Always patient, even when the ledger has nine dozen mistakes in it.
 The Master Matchmaker . . .
 With the amazing talent of talking kids into things that they wanted to do all along.
 Even after you're gone, she doesn't forget you.

The Half-Way Mark

Darrrry.
This year has gone by so quickly. I wish the best of luck in all you do. I hope we will always be thrown together
in school somewhere.
Be happy, don't forget me please!
God Bless with you.

Struggling to retain their unity, the sophomores commute between East and North Campuses. Spirit is the key word in this class, not only spoken, but manifested in cheers, screams, and spirited antics.

B.O.C. Has a Busy Year

The Board of Control was quite busy this year, attempting to revolutionize the dress code, supporting the Inner Agency Against Smoking, trying to mobilize the Student Court, selling chocolate bars, and recruiting dance-decorating committees. The BOC is headed quite capably by President Jack Kenealy (Below) and Vice President Rob Zierenberg (Right Above). Aiding in the functions of the BOC are: (Right Below) Marlene Medefind, Director of Publicity; Anne McCulloch, Treasurer; and Sherie Spendlove, Secretary.

(Above Left) Cindy Anderson, Head Cheerleader and Cindy Garretson, Head of Pep Club, do much to keep spirit alive at Merced High School, while Ken Oliver, Chief Justice, does what he can to keep students in line. (Above Right) Skip George, Director of Athletics, keeps the student body physically fit, while Debbie Prine, Director of Elections, is in charge of all the voting. (Below) Every Tuesday morning loyal class representatives show up for the BOC meeting.

B.O.C. Works in Practical Ways

(Above) The assistant BOC officers, Duke Ferguson, assistant director of athletics, Andy Deane, second vice-president, Gene Mash, assistant director of elections, Della Cross, assistant secretary, Joe Barger, assistant director of publicity, Susie Sartori, head "B" cheerleader, and Charmaine Pareira, assistant treasurer, gather for a group shot. (Below) Student Body advisors, Mr. Lenker and Mr. Grover sit in on a BOC meeting.

The Marching 100's A

Letter Carriers Spell Out Success

(Right) Linda Laird and Lori Campbell ready themselves for the Long Beach competition, where we see the whole Merced High School Chorus line (Below), composed of Sherie Spendlove, Suzanne Waggoner, Lori Campbell, Katrina Wilhelm, Joy Anglin, Linda Laird, Martha Bullock, and Mary Gonella.

Darlings Are First at Long Beach

The Choir has an Action-packed Year

In "Get Up and Go", the choir's smash hit, Jill Brown finally got her man—Paul Guthrie (Right Above), and Steve Beale and Rob Cobb peek over the hedge (Left Above). The entire choir points out their conductor, Mr. Joe Guthrie (in case anyone should wonder) (Below). Other members of the choir are: Candy Adam, Cindy Anderson, Tom Anderson, Debi Arnold, Liv Barboza, Brad Barnett, Vicki Beal, Mary Blake, Kirk Bowie, Dennis Brown, Randy Brown, Karen Chapman, Gwen Cockrum, Lawry Criswell, Lori DeCaro, Ernest Dominquez, Linda Dewhirst, Ed Duenas, Dennis Dupertis, Susan Eastman, Kathy Ehrhardt, Duke Fergerson, Lin Fretz, Debbie Furtado, Bill Gleeson, Sharon Graham, Audrey Garland, Kathy Greenough, Paul Guthrie, Pat Harvey, Orville Jenkins, Cathy Johnstone, Mike Lancaster, Reenie Matthes, Glen Meade, Marianne Miller, Beki Mink, Marsha Neal, Janet Ocken, Barbara Patterson, Debbie Peeler, Randy Phillips, Mike Paredes, Vicki Quario, Mike Reeves, David Ross, Sharon Sanders, Linda Schoening, Darlene Scott, Elizabeth Slagter, Nedra Sorenson, Pat Stribling, Rosemary Vaughn, Janet Warcup, Bob Watters, Chris Weed, Roger Williams, Jean Wright.

Miss Ann Wilson conducts an orchestra practice (Above). Lin Fretz, Sara Udall, and Beki Mink, the three best cello players at Merced High School, are intently playing their cellos (Below). Other members include:

Seniors Lasso the El Rodeo

Eight seniors got a big order—to make a yearbook. After much struggling, coaxing, prodding; some yelling and a few tears, this feat was accomplished. The eight seniors, along with their faithful advisor are pictured above. Marlene Medefind is Copy Editor and drops some of the pearls of wisdom here and there. Patti McMaster is a Co-Editor and has burned her share of the midnight oil and always manages to get those last few pages in. Karen Pivrotto is a Co-Editor and is the creator of all the works of art in the 1970 El Rodeo. Bill Spriggs is the man with the camera who always manages to be at the right place at the right time. Barbara Smith always lends a helping hand—at the typewriter, or full of doughnuts. Mary Melton does a great job as Advertisement Manager. Gin Yang, the Head Typist is marvelous at deciphering the copy in something legible. Mike Ackison, the Business Manager does the best job of making out receipts of anyone anywhere. Mr. Kirkman is the most patient, understanding, inspiring advisor a yearbook staff could hope for. Each person did his part to produce this yearbook and each person can have a sense of pride knowing he contributed his best to the 1970 El Rodeo.

The Junior Staff Always Pulls Through

Scribe . . . The Cream of the Literary Crop

Drama Enthusiasts Have a Productive Year

Chess Club Rooks King

Learning the mechanics of that ancient game, Chess, is the goal of the Chess Club. (Left Above) Mr. Lemmen, advisor, gives President Gin Yang some advice on her next move. (Right Above) Cathy Dunbar, secretary-treasurer, plays the vice president of the club, James Gale. (Bottom) Steve Hand and James Gale are intent on their game while, in the background, Gin Yang challenges Mr. Lemmen.
